2. Cancellation

The Policyholder may cancel this Policy at any time. If the Policyholder cancels within 14 days of either the inception or renewal date or the date they receive the contractual terms and conditions (whichever is later) then the Coverholder will return any premium already paid (providing that no claims have been made). If the Policyholder cancels outside this period they will not be entitled to any refund of premium. The Insurer/Coverholder may cancel the insurance by giving the Policyholder 30 days notice in writing sent to the Policyholder's last known address.

3. Terminology

The terminology used in this Policy is that of England and Wales but shall, where appropriate, mean the equivalent terminology of any relevant jurisdiction within the Territorial Limits.

All communications by the Policyholder to the Insurer or their representatives shall be deemed duly sent if sent to the Coverholder.

5. Presentation of Claims by the Policyholder

The Policyholder must notify the Coverholder as soon as reasonably possible of any Insured Event which may give rise to a claim, complete any forms requested by the Coverholder and promptly supply such information as the Coverholder or their agents require.

6. Arbitration

If there is a dispute between the Coverholder and the Policyholder, which is not resolved by this Policy, either side may refer to the arbitration of a single arbitrator, being a solicitor or barrister agreed by the two sides. If no agreement can be reached the President of the relevant national Law Society shall name an arbitrator. The arbitrator's decision will be final and binding on both sides. The arbitration will be governed by the rules set out in the Arbitration Acts in force at the time. The costs of arbitration shall be borne by the instigating party unless deemed otherwise by the arbitrator.
